

Instructions:

Players take turns to join two dots, up and down or left to right.

When a player joins all four edges of (small) square, they get an extra turn.

The winner is the player who forms the most squares.